Section One: Section 18-152 entitled "Enforcement Procedure for Non-Moving Violations" shall be amended to read as follows:

1. The officer on observing and stopping a vehicle that is in violation, on a non-moving offense, that is covered by this process, may in lieu of an arrest, issue a minor ordinance violation notice (P-ticket). With the ordinance violation notice (P-ticket) the officer gives the offender an explanation sheet, a copy of which is attached hereto, advising the offender he may satisfy the violations without court appearance by proof of repair or compliance and by payment of an administrative fee to the municipality. In the reasonable exercise of discretion, it should be limited to offenders, living within the municipality, or an adjacent municipality, where the officer may reasonably expect the offender to comply by his subsequent court appearance or if he fails to comply, that the offender is reasonably available to arrest pursuant to warrant. Offenders who are not within this group may be arrested, served a personal service traffic complaint (X-ticket) and required to post bond or the offender may be treated pursuant to the NONRESIDENT VIOLATOR COMPACT which is now in effect.

2. The offender has ten (10) days to appear at the police station to show proof of compliance and pay the TEN DOLLAR ($10.00) administrative fee. If the offender requests a court date, he shall be given the notice to appear copy of the P-ticket with an appropriate court date.

3. If the defendant does not comply within ten (10) days, where he has not been given a court date, the final notice copy of the P-ticket is sent with a letter requesting disposition within the next ten (10) days and payment of an administrative fee of FIFTY DOLLARS ($50.00).

4. If the defendant does not comply upon receipt of the final notice copy, the notice to appear copy of the P-ticket is served on the defendant with a court date. All P-tickets with a court date are then promptly transmitted to the clerk of the court for placement on the court docket on the date specified.

5. If the offender does not appear on his court date, the municipality may request a warrant for his arrest. These cases that require warrants will be limited to defendants described in section (1) above.
